The Monroe County Watchman has been enlarged from a seven column folio to a nine column sheet.

Rev G. W. Nickell went to Staunton this morning to attend a meeting of the Synod of Virginia.

L. M. McClintic, who has been so dangerously sick the past six weeks, is slowly recovering, though not able to sit up yet.

Greenbrier Circuit Court convened this week. On the second day Judge Bennett was indisposed and Andrew Price was elected special judge.

W. W. Arbogast was in town this week delivering a carload of pears. He sold another car at Bartow and another one at Cass, but those for Cass failed to come.

So far this season we have heard of but two deer being killed. Both were large bucks with fine antlers. One was killed on the Middle Fork of Williams, and the other on Little Creek.

C. E. Beard, of Mill Point, we are sorry to announce, has been at death's door the past week from hemorrhage of the bowels. As we go to press we learn he is better.

David Dean and son went to Lewis County Thursday to visit friends and relatives. This is Mr Deans first trip back to his native county in twenty five years.

It should be borne in mind by the commissioners who have been appointed to hold the election at the various precincts, that the law requires one of them to come to the court house for the ballots, poll books and boxes.

Beard and Ashcraft, the two Marlinton butchers, will buy beef at the highest market price for cash.

An orchard of nearly three hundred trees, which have been planted for three years, of a Mr Beverage on Alleghany Mountain, were killed by the severe freeze. We understand that a great many young orchards suffered much damage.

Captain Watson, a well known traveling salesman, of Elkins, dropped dead while selling a customer a bill of good in Durbin Tuesday. The Captain is especially well known and liked in Pocahontas where he had a large run of custom. He was, about fifty five years of age, and leaves a family of grown sons and daughter. One of his sons was a practicing dentist at Durbin for some time.

Sergant Cochran, of Seebert brought on No 107, an Italian, working for the Droney Lumber Company, to jail last Saturday for hunting on Sunday and killing birds. Monday morning he was arraigned before Squire Richardson and was assessed nearly seventeen dollars for his sport. We are getting most awful tired of these dagoes killing off our game and birds and are always glad to see them feel the recoil of laws broken.

Wednesday, October 17, 1906, at five p. m., in the office of the Pocahontas Times, Major Randolph Roland and Kate C. Fowler were married by Rev. Wm. T. Price, D. D., These parties are worthy colored people natives of Fluvanna County, Va., but now residents of the Clover Lick vicinity. They were accompanied by a very genteel group of youthful colored friends, who were present at the ceremony. All boarded the evening train for Clover Lick, where their home will be for the present.

Mike Long and Gus, the Swede the two remaining saloon keepers of the upper end who have not been put under bond or are in jail awaiting action on indictments found against them at the recent court, were captured in Elkins Wednesday and lodged in jail on warrants sworn out for them by Prosecuting Attorney Bratton, Just as the officer was preparing to leave on the morning train to bring in the prisoners, Mr Bratton received a telegram saying that both prisoners had broken jail and escaped. Gus the Swede seems to be a rather slippery piece of humanity as this is the third time the reids began that he has slipped through the meshes.

Syrian Leper is Dead

George Raschild, the Syrian Leper who has been isolated about one mile from here in a tent for several weeks, died this morning of heart failure, though the leprosy had made rapid atrides on his body during the last week.

The toes on his left foot were almost eaten off, two fingers a mass of ulcers, and his tongue was covered with sores, being badly swollen. The county and state authorities have been notified and it is likely that the body will be cremated.

Diptheria in Elkins

At a special meeting of the Board of Health of Elkins, Randolph county, held last week, the public schools were ordered closed until further notice on account of diptheria. As a farther precaution no services will be held in the churches, and all places of amusement will be closed until further notice. The development of a number of cases of diptheria led to prompt action in the matter.

Married at Hotel De. Armit, Marlinton, near 5 p. m., October 17th 1906, Edward Isaac Lyle and Miss Ola Virginia Cross by Rev. Wm. T. Price, D. D. Mr Lyle is a son of Mr and Mrs S. B. Lyle near Millboro Springs, Va. He is now a resident of Cass and holds the position of Brakeman on the Greenbrier and Elk River R. R. The bride is a daughter of Mr and Mrs W. B. Cross, of Cass W. Va. and is a very prepossessing young lady. Miss Notie Cross, sister of the bride, escorted by Mr Noah Cline, was maid of honor.

Parties present at the ceremony were the parents of the bride, Frank Roswell and wife, Mr and Mrs J. M Griffin, all of Cass. Mrs Griffin and Mrs Roswell are sisters of the bride. Soon after the ceremony the parties took the evening train for Cass, where a reception awaited and which will be their home for the present.
